

A rather gloomy day. Mamma swept this morning. Finished Eva's book. In the afternoon we got a very pretty azulejo. Sheik hit home from Mrs Day. Papa went to the Falls to night, and we go to Black Creek in the morning. Fern Healy was down at night to see about Wednesday night. Dr Green was here at night.

Tuesday Jan. 1st 1901.

The first day of 20th century. They had a service in the church last night. Got some old medicine this morning. Eva was over. Papa came home to night. He never told Mattie last night at all. and now I don't know who to get for to know.
