

In the afternoon I went uptown. Called for Beatrice but she was out with Percy. Went to Eckhardt's got my pieces to-day. Mr. Thompson was in there. Went to Dummie and bought a shamrock for to snobber. He said they came from Ireland. Mr. and Mrs. Ray were over at night. They played euchre.

SATURDAY 17

(76-289)

St. Patrick's Day Took my music lesson. Mr. Reed asked me where my green was and told me to come home and put it on. Took the 'March' by Hollaender. The other was wrong and I had to take it back. I wanted the one by Benj. Godard and the one I got was by Ch. Godard and was not much good. Very cold. Mamma said I did the ironing as Mrs. Trusty did not come.
