

Dr Hunt from Hamilton came yesterday to do Miss Clue's bridgework. She went up to the office about 10. Mabel brought a little porcelain clock to hang on the wall, & Maehle and I went to McTear's garden for carnations. Got fancies, stopped in Mrs Papp's house from there with Elly. Maehle & I went to Mrs Sullivan's. Maehle & I went to church to hear Paul's "Holy City." Miss O'Connor of Buffalo was soprano, Mattie Coy contralto, M. M. M. tenor, & L. W. White organist.

FRIDAY 18

(188-227)

Put our dahlias out yesterday. Maehle finished cleaning house today. Both of us went uptown. Bought enough blue & white striped goods for a sailor blouse. Got a little ribbon with a flag & "Victory" printed on it. Put it on. Making is relieved, and the bells were ringing, whistles blowing, God grant fireworks going off, & 9 yds. of fire-tight for my white figure dress. I went uptown to celebrate Maehle's birthday & Maehle's birthday.
