

I went up to the post to mail some letters and papers for papa as it was so rainy we could not go yesterday. Cleaned the parlor. Then mamma and I painted the kitchen floor with first coat. Bought some boards from Mrs. Cannon. Tom was in and wanted to paint, but we did not let him.

Mamma cleaned the halls. I fixed some blue velvet ribbon for a tie. Miss Seymour was here collecting for the Bible Society. Mamma and I went uptown. Frank's coat is much better. Had a card from papa. Anna Lloyd appeared and she did not get it so she has to go down stairs again with the kids. Mrs. P. took us through her house.
