

Cleaned the sitting-room this morning. Washed some of the little things. Did not get through until nearly four o'clock. Then I went uptown, while she was gone and an awful wind came up and I brought my fish in the house. She borrowed a needle of Mr. Kane's at a sample picture from Perry Co. Malden, Mass.

Cleaned the diningroom. Chaplain's saw works were burned this morning. I went uptown in afternoon. Ordered some oats & meat. Was to post and office Mr. Wilson cheated me out of 3 cents he said coconut wafers were 15 instead of 12¢ a lb. Met Helen as I was coming home and went back uptown with her. We saw the fire. Mrs. Chathfield called. I got a good book out of the library "Edith Demons' Life Work". The dress concert was to-night in the Opera House.
