

Went to school in the afternoon. Then papa, mamma & I went to the Redpath Concert Co. The concert was fine. I never heard anything I liked as well. There were four singers, 1 violinist and 1 pianist. Mrs. Meredith, soprano Miss Cary, contralto Dr. Carl Dufft, basso Mr. Towne, Tenor, Miss Von Firsich violinist and Miss Kober pianist. All of them were encored twice, and Mr. Dufft three times. All the ladies got a beautiful bouquet. The first part was Lehmann's "In a Persian Garden."

WEDNESDAY 24

(24-341)

Went to school in the morning. Annie Gardiner was not there. Mrs. Dwyer and Beatrice called in the afternoon. Beatrice and Percy were at the concert but I did not see them. Beatrice thought it was not worth 75¢ last night. Well everybody did not think so or they would not have encored them as they did. Mamma finished her Bottenburg cushion. Helen was coming over this afternoon, but she did not get here.
