

Mrs Dwyer was buried this afternoon Mamma and I went to church.
 We were late. We had Mr Kelley as I suppose Mr Perry was at the funeral. Then we went to the Post Mamma sent for some samples from Simpson's. We really went to the Musical to night. Mr Williams led it. Miss Macfarlane played a very pretty Berceuse by Schyette and Mr Thompson and Miss Burrin played Chaconne by J. S. Bach. I liked these the best. It was Scandinavian night.

FRIDAY 9

(68-297)

Went to school. Annie was there. She went with me as far as the library. I got "A House-Boat on the Staff", by J. R. Bangs after so long as I have been trying to get it for nearly a year. Finished it to night.
 We expected Dr and Mrs Klotz to spend the evening, but they did not come. Mattie is going back in the choir, and she sang too.
