

Staid at home and practiced to day as the club meets at Mrs Rays to-night. Papa, Mamma and I went. Not many could dit come so Mrs Ray got Percy and Beatrice to come. Armstrongs and Macgregors were there. Beatrice upon the ladies gave a bottle of perfume. Mr Macgregor the gentlemen a knife and Mr Armstrong the booky a chocolate left. Papa borrowed a book "Sam Ball's".

TUESDAY 10

(100-265)

At noon papa brought home a box of seeds from Steele's. My elephants jar was with the bills will come later. Mamma got a letter from Aunt Allie she is not coming next week. We heard from Carrie she is much better. I went to meetings to have one of my little pictures framed a "Head of Christ". Got a Kentucky Cardinal out of the library. Anne Lloyd came home with me as far as Lock II Hill. They had a great time at school. They got up a petition not to go to school next two days everybody signed but, and John can sit there.
