

I went to church in the morning. Sermon on Samuel VII. 243 verses. The girls would not go. Then I went to Sunday School and took that awful class. The lesson Christ's Beluke & Peter's Confession. They would not pay any attention to me. The Salvation Army people had a great time in the park. The people went for a drive down through Port.

MONDAY 23

(204-161)

Staid around home nearly all day. Roy was down in the morning to find papa's address. Then he brought the papers at night. Had three meals. Then the girls and mamma went for a drive to the cemetery and I rode down they went to Mrs Woodruff's after and got the raspberries and some apples. Papa sent a box of fish. Will not be home until Wednesday night.
