

A day of picnics. Ams went to Gribbsby, Shell and Ave, Church to Mrs Callas, St. Barnabas to Queenston, & St. James & Merrittton to Port Colborne. I went uptown stopped for Mr Papp's keys. Was to Dudley's & eta had gone to picnic going with George & Underbough to Queenst. The keys did not fit. Immediately went to Mr Leno's with one of a large Sons of England, in the park. picnic

Rode up to Smith's for meat. He has quit giving trading stamps. I hope I do not lose my book. Marjuna went collecting in afternoon. She was at W gods to see if they wanted to buy trading stamps but they had all they wanted as they quit giving off stamps. I spent over the eta's time the afternoon. And when I came away she went with me to Alice's as I wanted to get the address of The Etude. Marjuna & I were for a drive at night. "The Musician" came to night. The Shell and Ave. Underbough paper is by law passed.
