

I was over to Mrs Ray's in the afternoon to see how she was. She intends having the club on Monday evening. If now there I went to Inker's. Mamma ordered some cotton yesterday, but it did not come. Then I went to church. Mr Perry spoke on the same verse as yesterday. "An inheritance incorruptible, undefiled and unfading." He said God was the only person that was not corruptible, defiled or fading. Mamma, Phoebe & I sent for some seeds from Steele Bros. I ordered an elephant ear (variegated).

FRIDAY 6

(96-269)

Sweep day. In the afternoon I practiced. Papa brought home a magazine "The Wide World" at night. There was one piece that told about the awful sufferings of a missionary in South Africa and it gave his picture. Papa went to a stay party at Mr. F. Southcott's gave it at night. Each had a lantern and a little Union Jack.
