

Washday Annie Trusly was here begging for the Salvation Army. I had to take the money to the church. Gave it to Mr. Perry.
 Gave Mrs. Trusly my quilt against. Mamma went to Miss Anderson's. Got me a "Scribbling Pad". A hat is going to come to-morrow
 she picked out.

THURSDAY 27

(270-95)

Mamma hats came this morning, but she decided after dinner not to keep any. We drove up Mary St. And I took them back.
 Then we drove out to Overholt's. Saw Mrs. Williams.
 Mrs. Overholt was in town.
 They have a cute little colic pup. P. Papa went to office then to Opera House to Miss Blackwell's recital. Will Thompson son played, and Miss Vanderburgh accompanist.
