

The first good snowstorm of the season. Mr Lee brought a basket of Baldwin apples. Snow turned to rain. Wrote to Bessie Corrie. Was going after the papers, but it was too bad. "Way Down East" last night was not very good. Maryann making up some Battenberg ends for ties.

WEDNESDAY 14

(318-47)

About 2 o'clock Uncle Freeman came in as he had been to Port for sand. We were waiting dinner for papa, as he is coming home. Came with his deer. The one is a fine buck. I went uptown after the papers and mail. Had dinner so late we did not have any tea. When mamma went with me to the church. Mr Perry wants Beatrice & I to play Friday night. We just had business things about the reception.
