

Old Mrs Dwyer died this morning and is to be buried Thursday in English Church burying ground at Port. It has been thawing nearly all day, and the walking is fearful. Papa got water in fovee his overshoes. Did not go to school. Wanted to go to the church but walking was too bad.

WEDNESDAY 7

(66-299)

The walks have frozen to day and the walking is as bad as ever. Very rough. Miss Eva Vine fell on Queen St. in front of Thomson & Moore's office and she was unconscious for 20 minutes. Did not go to school or church. Was over to Camano in afternoon. Ella was showing me the darning needle work. Winnie was showing me some of her Christmas presents. She got a very nice picture with Mozart, Schubert, Beethoven, Mendelssohn, Wagner & Haydn framed in it. She got a silver pudding dish with her stamp book.
