

The curtains for the hall & kitchen windows came this morning. The hall ones have lace on. I finished the "Castle Inn": A very good story of its kind, but they can hardly say a word without repeating. Aunt Lillie and Uncle Horace came to - night after tea. Papa & Uncle Horace took Ben up to Murphy's livery stable.

Uncle Horace and Aunt Lillie went uptown shopping and did not get back until dinner. Then Aunt Lillie's mamma drove down to Wades in the afternoon. After tea Mrs. Gunn came down. Played some for her then we all went up to hear the first band concert of the season. They played two new hymns from England.
