

Did not have to go to school today as they were examined in Latin and Euclid. The club met at Rotman's to-night. At last! all the club were there except the Mr Ghies and Mrs Armstrong. And the two Miss Seymours ^{with their} Beatrice and I played some. Her prize was the "Picariny Shuffle". Mrs Ray won the ladies prize and papa the gentlemen's. Mr Ray's was a little handpainted jelfbox and tray, and papa's a roller blotter with ebony handle and sterling trimmings.

THURSDAY 15

(45-319)

Went to school in the afternoon. Sat with Zeta. I went by the stove when Miss Coney told us to go to the board, and she said she thought I would find it too hot which I was very glad of. Was to the postoffice to mail two letters for Phyllis. We waited and waited for papa to come home for tea, but he did not come, so Mr and Mrs Bay came over and we were playing the second game of euchre when he came sailing in. Mr Bunting gave him his supper.
