

Mr. Tully started for New York this morning, and Mr. Abbott was going to the Bridge with her. Mrs. Mabel Groome has started to give lessons to a "limited" number. Eva was here in the afternoon. They have a new grammar and geography. When Eva and her sister were in after tea. She had some mumping and playing hide & seek.

FRIDAY 7

(250-115)

Canued tomatoes this morning. Very cool to-day. Harriet and I went for a drive. We went down to Brazier's to see about our elderberries and someone had stolen all of them. Then we drove to Homer to order Danson plums from Mr. Dorr. We came up a road I have never been on. Eva was over at night. Mr. Inkster's little boy is dead.