

I went over to Jones to inquire how Mrs Jones was and took her 3 trout. The men came and took down the staves. Mamma went uptown bought enough pecque for one adress. Called for Kulu then went to Hendersons and met Daisy Patchiff. The programme of just with a piano quartette. Mr Read was Chapman and read the same paper as he read at Musical. Had eating afterwards.

FRIDAY 4

(124-241)

We started housecleaning. We expected Mrs Fish but they disapointed us. Mr Ross and Mr Lewis cleaned the carpets out of Mamma's room, mine and Probes. Rode uptown to see Mr Larey's "cheap" ties and they were cheap. Got one at Gait's a white satin bow. Papa got a new Calendar from Hank of Commerce with map of South Africa on it. Mrs Adam Borrowman died last night.
