

Was reading "Three men on wheels" when Mrs Sulley and Dr Abbott came in. They wanted papa, mamma & I to go to the McElland house for tea. Dr Abbott hurried up to the office and caught papa. Had a very good supper. They watched a game with us. Mrs Sulley told about a good book "Varda" by Eber.

Mamma and I drove up to Dr. Loren's and to the library. Changed my book for "A County Minister's Love story" by Maria Bell Neel set down by Dr Loren's. I was cheered. We drove out Martindale way. Got some flowers. Went over to Campys and asked Blanche, Ed & Sam over, but the gentleman had flown. Dr Abbott and Mrs Tregey were gone for the last time. Had infelors.
