

Mrs. Tusty is here. Did not go to school, but went to library and got a book "The Guinea Stamp" by Annie S. Swan. Mamma went to church, and they got $27. The Ladies Aid is doing all right. Mamma went to a musicale held at Mrs. Larkins for Red Cross fund. Winnie and Mattie sang, Louisa Groves & Mrs. Marquis played and Mr. Garry. Papa went to lodge and the "Citizens Hose" supper.

Went to school in afternoon. Annie Gardiner was there. She has not been there for a long while. She came to Queen street with me. I finished "The Guinea Stamp" last night. I am a very swift reader. Mamma went out to call on Mrs. Klotz. She went uptown, and bought me a pair of gray kid gloves for to-morrow afternoon. Did my German for to-morrow at night. Have 30 and 31 pages of "Das hohe Berg."
