

Aunt Lillie and Uncle Horace were up to the office in the morning. The Justice was here. Had to go over to Leeds in the morning. Uncle Horace and Aunt Lillie have got to the Johnson farm in Crantham. Had some old transfers so I finished some this afternoon. Listed them in German grammar like a kid. Had a band concert for children to night. Henry King of Toronto is dead. Eva brought me some valents.

THURSDAY 13

(256 109)

Aunt Lillie was writing off receipts this morning. Tommy and Eva were over. Uncle Horace and Aunt Lillie went to office about 1:30. They wanted to get away on the three o'clock car but couldn't. Mamma & I drove up to the office and papa took the horse and went to Mrs Wyatt's funeral. Got my music. The boys took Gullak's Blue Masque and piece Petite Valse waga 4.15 but I got them for 5.35. Got two Misses Cloys, and Mr Charles had. Uncle Horace and Aunt Lillie went home at five. Mamma got some preserved ginger.
